NOTICE: PATIENT PRIVACY

We are required by law to protect the privacy of your medical information and to provide you with written notice describing:

HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN ACCESS THIS INFORMATION.

- We may use or disclose to others your medical information for purposes of providing or arranging for your health care, the payment for or reimbursement of the care that we provide to you, and the related administrative activities supporting your treatment.
- We may be required or permitted by certain laws, regulations, or circumstances to use and disclose your medical information for certain purposes without your authorization. Under other circumstances we may need your written authorization (that you may later revoke) in order to use or disclose your medical information.
- As our patient, you have important rights relating to inspecting and copying your medical information that we maintain, amending or correcting that information, obtaining an accounting of our disclosures of your medical information, requesting that we communicate with you confidentially, requesting that we restrict certain uses and disclosures of your health information, and complaining if you think your rights have been violated.
- We have available a detailed NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES which fully explains your rights and our obligations under the law. We may revise our NOTICE from time to time. The EFFECTIVE DATE at the top right hand side of this page indicates the date of the most current NOTICE. Please ask for a copy and you will be provided with one.
- If you have any questions, concerns or complaints about the NOTICE or your medical information, please contact Dr. Newirth directly at (907) 569-5757.

I certify that I have read and received a copy of this PATIENT PRIVACY NOTICE.
